

STOP WORK ORDER

FROM THE PIERCE COUNTY PLANNING AND PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

LOCATION: Pierce County Planning and Public Works Department, Pierce County Annex, 2401 South 35th Street, Tacoma, WA 98409

Development activity (such as: grading, excavating, filling, clearing, logging, altering vegetation or creation of impervious surfaces) within unincorporated Pierce County is subject to the requirements of the Pierce County Development Regulations.

The following violations have been identified on parcel no. 0616032001; 38400 Moose Junction Road East.

Failure to conduct regulated activities in a manner consistent with County approval pursuant to application numbers 858766 and 858765

⊕ Brief Description of Violation:

Use of unauthorized materials within the river channel - in violation of Pierce County Code 18.140.030 A

The use of unauthorized materials does not conform to approved plans. Therefore, you are instructed to do the following:

- 1. Immediately cease all activity associated with applications 858766 and 858765. In the event of an unforeseen emergency that necessitates some limited activity, please contact Pierce County.
- 2. Ensure adequate flow is provided to the fish ladder.
- 3. Retain a qualified consultant to prepare a plan for removal of all unauthorized materials onsite and downstream of the work area. The Consultant must have demonstrable experience with projects and natural systems of this size and scale. Provide the Consultant's name to Pierce County for approval.

Once this plan is reviewed and approved, and implemented, work can commence on 858766 and 858765.

Within the consultant's plan for removal of material, or as a separate document, there is to be an assessment of impacts related to the use of the astroturf.

This assessment must include, at a minimum, a visual survey of the river, an analysis for the likely spread and fate of the smaller particles of astroturf material, and an analysis of the astroturf material sufficient to determine its composition and potential for impact.
